Optional Activities & Entrance Fees

Group Dinner	EUR 15-20
Kremlin Palace –	RUB 700 (Approx. EUR 8)

Personal Spending

The official currency of Russia is the Ruble (RUB). We recommend carrying a small amount of local currency on you, which can be retrieved from ATMs in the local region. However, in larger tourist regions and major cities both debit and credit cards are widely accepted. While every traveller's spending habits may differ slightly, we have estimated the average daily expenses to help with budgeting for your next trip. Here you will find the average cost for a meal or drink and advice for best practice in tipping.

Meals

Lunch at restaurant	US$ 6-8
Dinner at restaurant	US$ 8-13
Pirogi (pastry) at a stall	US$ 1-2
Pelmeni - Russian Dumpling	US$ 3-5

Drinks

Bottle of water	US$ 0.5
Coffee	US$ 3-4
Tea	US$ 2-3
Bottle of beer	US$ 3-5

Tipping

Tipping for good service is commonplace in Russia, but not compulsory. In restaurants and cafes, we suggest tipping 5-10% of your bill, if a service charge has not already been applied. Your Guide and Driver would also appreciate tipping as a sign of gratitude at the end of your tour.

Shopping

The Russian cities of Moscow and St Petersburg are any shopper's dream! Filled with ample markets, souvenir stalls, malls and boutique shops - all shopping lovers will be wishing they had more time here. Haggling is not commonplace in Russia with items in both shops and markets being sold at a fixed price.

Vodka

It's no secret that Russians love their vodka! While the popular spirit can be bought at any supermarket, some brands are sold in exclusive souvenir bottles to make for the perfect gift. The more expensive the bottle, the better the vodka quality. Prices start at 30 USD per litre for a souvenir bottle.

Lacquer Boxes

Lacquer Boxes are among the most beautiful crafts in Russia, made from papier-mâché. The material is lathered in lacquer and intricately painted with miniature landscapes, fairy tales or Russian history. You can expect to pay at least 20 USD for a small lacquer box in the marketplace.

Matryoshka Dolls

The Matryoshka Dolls (Babushka Dolls) are immensely popular and widely available across Russia. Consisting of tiny wooden dolls stored within other dolls and decorated in a traditional form of Russian wood painting, known as Khokhloma. The size, quality and price of these dolls can vary significantly. However, it is possible to buy a souvenir-quality Matryoshka Doll set from 8 USD in markets across Russia. More expensive, ornamental dolls can cost 1,000+ USD.

Essential Information: Russia

Passport & Visas

At present, all foreign passport holders are required to obtain a tourist visa to travel to Russia. The visa cannot be obtained at the Russian border. Therefore, you should apply for your tourist visa prior to travelling. A Russian tourist visa can only be provided to passengers who have booked and confirmed their travel arrangements. Processing times and fees vary per application location, nationality and travelling dates. Visas are typically issued for a maximum of 30 days.

- * Australian residents, please visit <https://sydney.mid.ru/web/sydney-en>

- * UK residents, please visit <https://russia-visacentre.com/en/visa/united-kingdom/russia>
- * American residents, please visit <https://washington.mid.ru/en/>
- * Canadian residents, please visit <https://canada.mid.ru/en/>

To apply for a Russian tourist visa you will need several documents including;

- * Original passport, valid for more than 6 months with at least 2 blank pages for visa
- * Application form
- * One passport-style photograph
- * Other documents such as proof of address
- * Tourist visa support documents (to be provided by Travel Talk upon full payment)
- * Applicable fees

Travellers entering Russia must also carry a passport with a minimum of 6 months validity remaining.

This information is provided as a guidance, we strongly advise that you check with the consulate or embassy as this information can change. Please note, visa costs can change at any time and with little notice depending on the political climate of the region. It is your responsibility to make sure that all the required travel documents are ready when travelling.

Travel Advice

We are closely monitoring the latest travel updates to Russia and follow the advice of the UK Foreign Office (FCDO). For the latest travel advice from the UK Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office, please visit <https://www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice/russia>

Please make sure to regularly check your Government’s travel advice before travelling and be well-informed of any requirements. Your tour guide will also notify you of the regulations and protocols to follow throughout your trip with us.

Please note that if any traveller is unable to complete the itinerary or possess a potential risk to themselves and/or the rest of the group, we reserve the right to remove them from all or part of a trip.

Please consult with your doctor for the latest medical travel information and any vaccinations you may need. We recommend that you bring any personal medical requirements and medications with you as these may be difficult to obtain while on tour.

Weather

Russia experiences a dominantly continental climate, the winters are long and cold, and summers are brief. The summer months of June – August are certainly a drawcard for many travellers. Due to Russia’s proximity to the Arctic Circle, the peak of Summer is accompanied by endless hours of warmth and daylight that stretch as late as 11pm. The Autumn months (September – October) are short lived but beautiful, with less crowds of tourists and a golden hue of autumn leaves swathing the nation. From November to February winter sets in and the country is blanketed in crisp white snow with temperatures sitting below zero degrees Celsius. Despite these freezing temperatures, Russia is a magical place to visit in the winter with far fewer tourists’ crowds making for the perfect opportunity to interact with locals and enjoy the breath-taking decorations and festivities of Christmas.

Months	Moscow		St.Petersburg
	High C°	Low C°	High C°	Low C°
January	-9	-15	-6	-12
February	-5	-13	-5	-11

July	22	13	21	13
August	22	12	20	12
September	16	8	15	9
October	9	3	9	4
November	1	-3	2	-2
December	-4	-9	-3	-7

Money Matters

The official currency of Russia is the Ruble (RUB). We recommend carrying a small amount of local currency on you, which can be retrieved from ATMs in the local region. However, in larger tourist regions and major cities both debit and credit cards are widely accepted. We recommend you do not exchange bulk sums of money at the airport as the exchange rates are usually more favourable in the major cities. Your tour leader will be happy to help if you need any assistance.

Please remember that everyone has different spending habits, some prefer to spend more on souvenirs, some on experiences and others on a night out! Make sure to budget your trip to your spending habits for shopping, drinking, and tipping.

Tipping for good service is commonplace in Russia, but not compulsory. In restaurants and cafes, we suggest tipping 5-10% of your bill if a service charge has not already been applied. Your Guide and Driver would also appreciate tipping as a sign of gratitude at the end of your tour.

Eating & Drinking

Visitors to Russia will be surprised by the variety in flavours of Russian cuisines, influenced by the nation's connections to Europe, Asia and the Middle East. Russian food is typically heavy and hearty with pickling also common due to harsh winters that can result in minimal produce harvests. Major cities such as Moscow and St Petersburg offer a diverse cosmopolitan food scene, showcasing a fusion of new and traditional Russian dishes. Searching for unique and authentic dishes can often be overwhelming if you're not a local, so here's a few must-try meals to get you started.

Borsch: A humble beetroot soup that originated in the Ukraine and quickly adopted as Russian speciality. The soup can include other ingredients such as meat and sautéed vegetables including cabbage, carrots, onions, and potatoes. It can be served hot or cold and is best served with a dollop of fresh cream on top.

Blini: Like a crepe, Blini is a wheat pancake rolled with a variety of fillings including jam, cheese, sour cream, caviar, onions or chocolate syrup.

Beef Stroganoff: Consisting of strips of beef in a creamy sauce with mushrooms or tomatoes. Stroganoff is served with rice, noodles or potato and is a hearty meal perfect for Russian winters.

Pirogi: Baked sourdough dumpling stuff with anything from minced meat to onion, eggs, and potatoes. This Russian dumpling can be found at street stalls for less than 1 USD!

Pirozhki: Pirozhki is a Russian fast food of sorts involved a bread-like bun stuffed with fillings such as cabbage, potato, meat, liver and mushroom. The bun is either fried or baked and best served warm or hot.

Pelmeni: Dumplings made from unleavened dough and filled with a combination of potatoes, mushrooms or meat and served with sour cream.

Okroshka: A cold soup made from chopped, raw cucumbers, radishes, spring onions, potatoes, egg and cooked meat. The ingredients are mixed with a fermented drink called Kvass and can come with ice cubes to keep the soup chilled.

Alcohol consumption in Russia is amongst the highest in the world and vodka is undeniably as much a cultural experience as much as it is an alcoholic spirit for tourists and locals alike. Usually served straight from the freezer and accompanied by a toast and cheers, vodka is an easy way to bond with the locals at any restaurant or bar across the nation. Kvass is another traditional drink worth trying while visiting Russia. This low-alcohol beverage is made by fermenting rye bread and has a low alcohol concentrate. If beer is your drink of choice, you have come to the right place! While vodka may be Russia's national libation, beer comes in at a close second. The most popular beers include Soviet Stalwart, Zhigulevskoe, or Baltika.

Distances

Please find below the distances between the sights visited in Russia and the approximate driving times. We will always strive to take a short break every few hours to enable passengers to stretch their legs, purchase snacks and use wash facilities during long drives.

- * Moscow – Sergiev Posad: 75kms, 2 hours 15 min
- * Sergiev Posad – Zaleskij Pereslavl: 80kms, 1 hour 15 min
- * Zaleskij Pereslavl – Vladimir: 135kms, 2 hours

Internet Access

Free Wi-Fi is common in hotels, cafes, and restaurants across Russia. Many internet cafes can be found in the cities as well. Alternatively, purchasing a Russian SIM card for the duration of your tour may be a cost-effective option. Your tour leader will be happy to advise on this.

Culture & Religion

Russia is the largest country in the world by area, spanning Europe and Asia from west to east and populated by over 160 various ethnic groups with a vast and diverse history. Russians have a reputation for being cold, but most locals are engrained to value camaraderie and hospitality. The nation has a rich cultural heritage and history, which its people are openly proud about. Due to the country's multi-ethnic make up, Russia is home to many religions. 75% of Russia's population follow Christianity through Russian Orthodox Church, Islam is followed by 5%, then Buddhism, Judaism and Protestantism. As travellers become acquainted with Russian culture and acquire stories and knowledge from their local guide, it becomes far easier to understand the large role that religion plays within everyday Russian society.

Etiquette and How to Dress

Russians have a tendency to dress quite conservatively, however a more relaxed dress code can be seen in metropolitan cities.

Women are recommended to avoid low cut tops and short skirts while men should not wear shorts except in an informal setting. Please also keep in mind that when visiting religious sites, appropriate attire is required. It is recommended to pack at least one set of modest clothing that covers both shoulders and knees, to be worn when visiting churches and other religious complexes. A headscarf for women is also necessary when visiting religious sites.

Solo Travellers

We have many solo travellers joining our tours. Solo travellers will be roomed with another traveller of the same gender. If you would like a private solo room, please contact us.

Rules to Follow

We are committed to ensuring a safe and enjoyable experience for everyone. We do not tolerate any form of violence (physical or verbal), bullying or harassment involving customers, partners, Travel Talk staff or locals. Sexual relationships between a tour leader and a passenger are forbidden.

We will not tolerate any illegal activity, including but not limited to: use and possession of illegal drugs, trespassing, and disrupting public order. If you consume alcohol, please ensure that you drink responsibly and follow the local laws and regulations.

You must follow the advice of your tour leader and local officials regarding health and safety measures. We operate all tours under Safe Travels protocols for the wellbeing of our passengers, staff and communities visited. Please ensure that you have read the <https://www.traveltalktours.com/safe-travels/> and are fully prepared for your trip.

If someone is acting inappropriately regarding these matters, please notify your tour leader immediately or contact us on the emergency contact number provided below.

Your tour leader has the right to remove from the group anyone not abiding by these rules, with no right of compensation or refund. See more at <https://www.traveltalktours.com/booking-terms/>

Please remember that our travellers come from different parts of the world and will have various needs and preferences. Be understanding and patient with your fellow travellers, and always strive to be on time.

Responsible Travel

We believe that travel is a force for good and show our support through various initiatives and charity organizations, as well as keeping the principals of responsible and sustainable travel at the core of our ethos. These values are engrained in our business culture and the design of our trips just the same. Together with you, we strive to make a positive impact on local people and economies, respecting the local culture, environment, social fabric and customs; encouraging respectful and meaningful cross-cultural exchange.
